

JOZEF LUPTAK RETURNS WITH GOOD FRIEND ROBERT COHEN FOR A GIFT OF MUSIC

Free Performance Wed. January 17

Jozef Luptak makes his return to Billings and brings with him his good friend and professor from the Royal Academy of Music in London, Robert Cohen. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to enjoy two of the great string instrument musicians of our time, right here in Billings Montana. Jozef has played in Billings a handful of times over the past few years and each time has left the witnessing audiences speechless with his exceptional performances. Robert Cohen is making his return to London after residing in Milwaukee for a time as part of the String Arts Quartet, and as a favor to his friend Jozef he has agreed to make a quick detour to Billings to perform, a true gift to our community. Robert Cohen is a remarkable musician and teacher of the fine arts and has been a professor at the Royal Academy of Music, London since 2010 as well as having given masterclasses at conservatoires, music courses and festivals throughout the world. In 2014 the Royal Academy of Music Cohen Lectures launched, reaffirming his position in the music hierarchy. Please join us for a night of beautiful string music!

Here is a quote from Robert: "...Jozef Luptak is a truly 21st century artist. He is multi-talented: an exceptional and eloquent cellist, a natural communicator - both verbally and through music in traditional, contemporary and improvised forms - and an inspired 'organiser', bringing wide ranging arts to audiences in innovative and uplifting ways. Residing within Jozef's creativeness is a warm and embracing personality and I immensely enjoy spending time with him. It has also been my privilege to work with Jozef on many occasions over the years and to watch his fascinating development."
