

World Renowned Cellist

Jozef Lupták

returns to Billings

Jozef and fellow musician Boris Lenko traveled from Slovakia to play several venues in Billings in 2015. They received numerous standing ovations and roars of applause from our community.

Fresh off a special invitation to perform with the Slovak Philharmonic, Jozef returns to Billings with the

Chassidic Songs Music Group

Composed of an all-star cast of brilliant musicians - Rabbi Baruch Myers (the first Rabbi to be allowed into Slovakia in 25 years!) (piano, voice), Miloš Valent (violin, viola), and Boris Lenko (accordion). The group has been playing Central Europe for over 5 years.

"I enjoyed a marvelous performance by Jozef Luptak and Boris Lenko at Yellowstone Art Museum. They are both superb musicians and their repertoire was varied, exciting and exceptionally well played. I was both surprised and delighted to hear such a world class performance right here at home and want to thank Bill Simmons for bringing them to Billings. I purchased all their cd's at the event and have enjoyed playing their superb recordings."

- Ossie Abrams

"The beautiful music of Jozef and Boris opened my heart and moved me to tears. They took me to a higher place; their amazing music is other-worldly."

- Elizabeth Klarich

"Jozef Lupták, Boris Lenko, and their fellow performers know no bounds. They venture out to wherever the greatest music is, regardless of cultural origin or historic period, and share it with others while using it to compose afresh. They create eclectic combinations are unexpected and delightful, and the virtuosity of their performances is outstanding. To enjoy intimate performances by such world-class musicians in our city is genuine privilege."

- Robyn Peterson,
Executive Director, Yellowstone Art Museum

"An unexpected musical pleasure and cultural experience unlike any concert I have ever attended. A must see."

- Derek Stone
